

This is DRAFT 1 of the Central Books 2023 catalogue. It has been drafted before any publisher has checked the text of their entries or taken up the options to book a image entry or offer their magazine for free trails. If you can not find your magazine in this catalogue please look at the index on page 143. When the design process has finished we will be sending printed copies to the retailers we supply.

If you want to do one of the following please see the contact information on this page:

- Book a full page entry in the catalogue. The price will be £130.00. See any example at page 69.
- Book a small image entry in the catalogue. The price will be £90.00. See any example at page 106.
- Amend your text, please keep the number of words down. If you are not book a full page or small image entry we will have to restrict the number of words to what is in this draft.
- If you wish you can include your magazine in the free trail offer. The cost to the publisher is giving away free copies during the trial. See page 5.

Please send an email to mark@centralbooks.com with the words " magazine catalogue " in the subject.

Please make any bookings for image entries by Friday 10th March 2023. We would prefer that publishers provide their text amendments and their image files when booking their entry.

There should be details on specification like image types and word counts in the invite email send to publishers. If you have not seen this please ask for a copy.

Late bookings (booked after 10th March 2023) will cost an additional £25, however, if the design phase is complete you may miss this year's catalogue so please book on time!

MAGAZINE CATALOGUE 2023

Introduction

Welcome to our 2023 magazine catalogue.

Central Books continues to be Europe's largest distributor of magazines to the book trade, galleries and other specialist outlets.

Central Books have been handling magazines since we were established in 1939 and we're delighted to note that Indie magazines and print are thriving. We – and our colleagues at Antenne Books - hope to continue bringing something different to your shelves for many years to come.

We continue to add titles to our own list since the last catalogue. We think you'll find them as compelling as we did when we took them on. Antenne Books have carried on building up their impressive magazine portfolio (see "New Titles from Antenne Books" on page 11).

We know that trading conditions remain difficult. Retailers need to attract customers with something different to what's available on the internet. They also need to know that their trading terms won't be undercut by the web retailers either. We think our specialist magazines deliver on both counts.

This catalogue is published April 2023 by Central Books:

CENTRAL BOOKS

2-4 PARTON STREET, LONDON, W.C.1.

1944 SPRING LIST

ANTENNE BOOKS AND CENTRAL BOOKS

Two Magazine Lists from One Place

Central Books and Antenne Books have now been working together for three years. This means retailers get supplied magazines from either list through Central Books.

Antenne Books established in London in 2010, handles publications on art, photography, design, illustration, theory, writing, fashion and culture. It has an extensive list of books and magazines from independent publishers of art and photography.

Please note that Antenne discounts apply to the entire Antenne list. These discounts may be different to what you get from Central Books.

You can still order any book or magazine handled by Antenne Books from Antenne Books if you wish but supplies will come from Central Books:

The Antenne Books list contains many magazines including one off magazines, fanzines, art-zines and book-a-zines. The Antenne titles in this catalogue are those that can be ordered on a standing order basis and have come out in the last 12 months. Like all the titles in this catalogue the information is correct at the time of going to press.

For the complete list of all Antenne Magazines appearing in this catalogue please see page 149 or www.antennebooks.com for regular updates.

FREE TRIALS AND ORDERING

Free Trials

Again we are offering retailers the chance to try out three or more magazines on a free trial basis. This offer is available for any magazine that shows "Available on free trial" under their website address in their catalogue listing. Central Books will supply three free copies for two issues after which supplies will continue at your standard magazine discount. The standing order can be cancelled at any time. Please note retailers have to trial at least three titles and overseas retailers will still have to cover carriage costs. There is an "Index of Free Trial" titles at the very end of the catalogue.

Ordering

Ordering from us is simple, we operate a standing order system: you set up a standing order with us, stating the quantity you require, and each new issue is automatically sent to you. If you have any unsold copies of a magazine when the new issue arrives, you return to us whole copies of magazines priced £10 or over, and just the covers of any others. It is difficult to judge the demand for a particular title straight away, so you can change your standing order at any time. You can, of course, cancel any title that is not selling, so there is no risk of being stuck with a magazine that does not sell in your shop.

We supply bookshops and art galleries around the world, although there are rights restrictions in some areas on a small number of titles. We aim to distribute magazines that have an editorial quality that goes well beyond the typical news trade glossy. In so doing we have picked magazines that suit bookshops and specialist retailers. If there are any titles that you are unfamiliar with we are happy to supply shops with samples; perhaps this will persuade you to extend the range of magazines that you currently carry, and encourage new outlets to try a selection of stock.

To place an order, or ask for samples, just contact our magazine department. Contact details for the magazine department are on page 7. At the time of publication (April 2023) price and frequency for each magazine was correct however prices may change without notice.

TERMS AND CONTACT DETAILS

Terms

All magazines are due for payment by the end of the month following the one they were invoiced in, for example all invoices dated August should be paid by the end of September. All magazines can be returned if unsold for credit. UK customers' returns should be sent to us within 3 months of invoice date in the case of monthly magazines, 6 months for bi-monthly, and one year for quarterly magazines. For overseas customers returns should be sent to us within 6 months of invoice date in the case of monthly magazines, 1 year for both bi-monthly and quarterly magazines.

Prices

We have done our best to show the expected cover prices for these magazines during 2023. Prices can vary from 1 issue to the next. Some magazines do special issues with high cover prices. Magazine publishers may decide to change their prices later in the year.

Weapons of Reason

Human After All, the design agency has the desire to use design as a force for good, Weapons of Reason is their own four-year publishing project: a magazine to explore the biggest challenges shaping our world.
Rather than provide answers, instead it asks the right questions to inspire people to join the dots for themselves, striving to turn knowledge into action.

Cover Price: £7.00

Frequency: Occasional

SPORT

Eight By Eight

Eight By Eight really is an unexpected delight, turning its pages is enough to make a football fan out of anybody with an eye for the beautiful. Every issue contains 100 pages of original journalism about the global game including leagues in Europe and South America plus the international games from football's most acclaimed journalists with stunning visuals and layouts that out do the best design magazines
